About Yakushima

Yakushima is an almost circular island having a circumference of 135 km located about 60 km south-southwest of the Osumi Peninsula in Kagoshima Prefecture. In 1994, the huge Yaku Cedar forests were designated as a World Heritage site.

◇ ◇

Prior to your departure

Make sure you have warm clothes. The climate along the coastal area of the island is subtropical, but the mountain area can be quite cool. The rainfall can be extreme around the northeastern part of the island, so pack an umbrella. Wear comfortable shoes for hiking.
